

S.No.	Program Outcome
1	Students will be familiar with the historical, political, social and psychological background of British, American and Indian English Literatures.
2	Students will understand and appreciate various forms, styles, structures, modes and genres of Literatures in English.
3	Comprehension of various writing styles and the potential for creative writings will be developed among students.
4	Students will be able to develop interdisciplinary approach and practice critical thinking skills.
5	Appreciation of the nuances and skills of English language will be developed among students.
6	Vocabulary, grammar and LSRW Skills of the students will be enhanced
7	Students will be able to inculcate humanistic, social and literary values
8	Students will be able to recognize the role of ethical values and intersecting and interposing forces and ideologies of the world through literature.
9	A good opportunity is also waiting for English Literature students in higher education in the form of M.A. in Literature, Linguistics, English language Teaching, World literatures, Comparative Literature, Women's studies, MBA etc.
10	Students will be able to apply for the following Job Positions; English Teacher , Editor, Translator, Language trainer, Communicator, Public Relations Officer, Speech Writer, Travel Writer, Blogger or Reviewer, etc.