

105th Convocation Function at Banaras Hindu University

14th December 2025

The 105th Convocation Function of Banaras Hindu University was held on 14th December 2025 with great enthusiasm and academic pride at the Malviya Anusheelan Kendra. The event marked a significant milestone in the academic journey of graduating students.

On this prestigious occasion, Prof. Anup Kumar Mishra, along with Principal Prof. Mishri Lal and Vice Principal Prof. Rahul Singh from DAV PG College, warmly welcomed distinguished academicians including Prof. Mritunjay Mishra, Head of the Department of Economics, BHU, and Prof. N. K. Mishra during the degree distribution ceremony.

The convocation ceremony was conducted in a dignified manner, celebrating the academic achievements of students across disciplines. The presence of eminent scholars and academic leaders added to the significance of the event. The interaction among faculty members from different institutions reflected a spirit of collaboration and academic excellence.

The ceremony concluded with a sense of pride and accomplishment among the graduates, inspiring them to contribute meaningfully to society and the nation.

