

Report on Academic Participation at IEA Conference

27th to 29th December 2025

Prof. Anup Kumar Mishra, Head of the Department of Economics, actively participated in the 108th Annual Conference of the Indian Economic Association held at Vels Institute of Science, Technology and Advanced Studies, Chennai.

On the concluding day of the conference, Prof. Mishra chaired a technical session, contributing significantly to the academic deliberations. The session witnessed engaging presentations and discussions on contemporary economic issues, reflecting the depth and diversity of research in the field.

Prof. Mishra's role as session chair facilitated meaningful dialogue among participants, fostering critical insights and scholarly exchange. In recognition of his contribution, he was honoured by the organizers.

The conference provided a valuable platform for interaction with academicians, researchers, and scholars from across the country, enhancing academic collaboration and knowledge sharing.

Also Prof. Anup Kumar Mishra's book Cultural Wealth and Economic Wisdom : Exploring India's Unique Path to Prosperities was released.

Overall, the participation was highly enriching and added to the ongoing academic engagement of the Department of Economics.
