

Report on Courtesy Meeting with the Vice-Chancellor

25th November 2025

A brief interaction with the Vice-Chancellor was held on 25th November 2025 during his visit to Banaras Hindu University affiliated DAV PG College Varanasi. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Ajit Kumar Chaturvedi, visited the Department of Economics as part of his inspection of academic departments.

During the visit, the Vice-Chancellor interacted with faculty members and reviewed the department's academic activities and ongoing research work. He appreciated the quality of research and expressed satisfaction with the department's academic progress. He also praised the innovative Nobel Laureate Corner established in the department. On this occasion, the department extended a warm welcome and felicitated the Vice-Chancellor. He was presented with two books titled "Cultural Wealth and Economic Wisdom" and "Sanskriti aur Swadeshi Arthneeti" as a token of respect. The Principal and all faculty members of the department were present during the interaction. The Vice-Chancellor also visited the college library and recorded his remarks in the visitor's register.

The visit was encouraging and inspiring, reinforcing the commitment of the department towards academic excellence and research.

