

Report on Orientation Program : "Significance of Ancient Trade and Trade Routes in the Modern Context" - "Showcasing Kashi Darpan."

27th September 2025

The Department of Economics, DAV Post Graduate College, Varanasi, organized an Orientation Program on 27th September 2025 at 12:00 noon in the Conference Hall of the Old Building under the aegis of IQAC. The theme of the program was "Significance of Ancient Trade and Trade Routes in the Modern Context", along with a special presentation titled "Showcasing Kashi Darpan."

The program was graced by eminent dignitaries including Shri Ajit Kumar Singh, Prof. Nidhi Sharma, and Prof. Mishri Lal. The event was coordinated by Dr. Ahuti Singh under the leadership of Prof. Anup Kumar Mishra.

The session highlighted the relevance of ancient trade networks and routes in shaping modern economic systems, emphasizing the continuity of trade practices and their evolving nature. The concept of Kashi Darpan was showcased to connect local heritage with economic understanding, enriching students' perspectives on regional economic history.

The dignitaries addressed the students and encouraged them to explore the interdisciplinary dimensions of economics, linking history, culture, and development. The program witnessed active participation from students and faculty members, making it an engaging and informative session.

Overall, the orientation program was a success, providing valuable insights and fostering academic curiosity among students.

