

Special Interaction Program: “Why Nations Fail and The Vision of Viksit Bharat @2047”

12th March 2026

The Department of Economics, DAV P.G. College, Varanasi, organized a Special Interaction session for faculty, students, and alumni on 12th March 2026 at the Econ Lab of the department. The theme of the interaction was “Why Nations Fail and The Vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.”

The keynote speaker for the session was Prof. I. D. Gupta, former Head of the Department of Economics, Lucknow University. With his vast academic experience, he delivered an insightful lecture connecting institutional settings with India’s long-term development vision. Prof. Gupta discussed key ideas inspired by the book Why Nations Fail, emphasizing how inclusive institutions, good governance, and sound economic policies determine the success or failure of nations. He further linked these concepts to India’s goal of becoming a developed nation by 2047, highlighting the importance of reforms, innovation, and human capital development. The program was coordinated by Prof. Anup Kumar Mishra, Head of the Department of Economics, who played a key role in organizing the event and encouraging academic engagement among students and alumni. The session witnessed active participation from faculty members, students, and alumni, making it highly interactive and intellectually enriching. Participants engaged in discussions on policy challenges, institutional reforms, and India’s economic future.

Overall, the program was a great success, providing valuable academic insights and strengthening the connection between theoretical knowledge and real-world economic issues.
